ST. LOUIS

Ralston Purina Company today announced that it received clearance from the Securities and Exchange Commission for its definitive proxy statement in connection with its merger with Nestle. The Company plans to mail the proxy to shareholders on or about April 18, 2001.

"The merger is tracking right on schedule," said W. Patrick McGinnis, Ralston's President and Chief Executive Officer. "We are working cooperatively with the Federal Trade Commission and other jurisdictions in their review of the transaction. Both we and Nestle expect to complete the transaction by December 31, 2001."

The Company expects to hold the special meeting on Monday, May 21, 2001, at The Westin Hotel in downtown St. Louis, Missouri. The purpose of the meeting is for Ralston shareholders of record at the close of business on April 3, 2001, to approve the merger agreement announced by Nestle and Ralston Purina on January 16, 2001.

The merger is, among other things, subject to regulatory clearances and approval by holders of at least two-thirds of all of the outstanding shares of Ralston Purina common stock.
