Totino, who lives in a downtown Chicago apartment without a car, never looked forward to trekking heavy traditional clumping litter home for Tia, and with a two year supply of Tidy Cats LightWeight litter as part of her winnings, she won't have to again. Tidy Cats LightWeight offers all the strength of traditional Tidy Cats but weighs half as much,* making it light enough to lift with one finger. But her prize went beyond the litter box itself, with an in-home makeover to give Tia some much-needed privacy and Totino some added style that she and her city kitty could both enjoy.

"I was just as excited to see Tia's reaction as I was Lisa's," said Pulos, who used her expertise in flipping spaces to help transform Totino's litter box area into a cleverly organized shared space. "Setting up a city space is always a challenge, and I had so much fun working with Tidy Cats to give Lisa and Tia this Littervention."

The newly renovated area has storage solutions with plenty of room for Tia's kitty essentials – including a private entrance to her litter box that is fully enclosed in a cabinet. And Totino has extra storage space for anything from books to barware.

In addition to making over her space, Tidy Cats also lightened Totino's errand load by deep cleaning her apartment with help from a maid service, pre-paying for a car sharing service, and treating her to a day of pampering at a nearby spa.

"I love having guests over, but have always struggled with Tia's litter space being front and center," said Totino. "I'm so thankful to Jenni and the Tidy Cats team for creating a beautifully organized space that gives Tia her privacy and me my apartment. Now the only way people know I have a cat is by seeing her instead of seeing or smelling her litter box."

In addition to Lisa's Grand Prize, Tidy Cats awarded a year's supply of Tidy Cats LightWeight cat litter and a $50 gift card each to runners-up Sara Sullivan of Clemmons, N.C., and Thomas Dombek of Camillus, N.Y. To enter the Contest, cat owners nationwide were asked why they felt they needed a LightWeight Littervention and to describe their relationship with their cat.
