

PURINA FARMS INCREDIBLE DOG TEAM ANNOUNCES SUMMER 2025 RESIDENCY AT ST. LOUIS UNION STATION

ST. LOUIS -- The Purina Incredible Dog Team is announcing a summer 2025 residency at St. Louis Union Station. The talented animal athletes and their trainers will perform two shows daily starting Thursday, July 17. The free performances will occur Thursday to Sunday each week until Sunday, September 28 with daily showtimes at 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

Featuring some of the most talented canines in the country, the Purina Farms Incredible Dog Team consists of more than 20 remarkably gifted dogs and two trainers who entertain audiences with extraordinary feats of athleticism and skill. Spectators can watch the team demonstrate a variety of canine sports while dogs of different breeds fly through the air to catch a flying disc, leap over a high jump, and maneuver through a series of obstacles in an agility course. The team, which features several rescue dogs, is on a mission to prove that with premium, high-quality nutrition, proper training and lots of unconditional love, any dog has the ability to be truly incredible.

"While the Purina Farms Visitor Center remains temporarily closed, we understand that our community is eager to see us. We're grateful for this opportunity to partner with our friends at St. Louis Union Station and bring action packed canine performances to local families and summer travelers, allowing us to continue showcasing that people and pets are better together in incredible fashion," said Eric Willis, Chief Marketing Officer at Purina.

Free shows featuring the Purina Incredible Dog Team will take place inside Union Station on the Purina Performance Plaza near St. Louis Wheel Park. For a full schedule of events and updated information on Purina Farms, visit purinafarms.com or follow on Facebook and Instagram.
