

Friskies Teams Up with Arizona Wildcats to Donate 1,000 Meals per Point Scored to Tucson Shelter Cats

Victory for cats as Friskies goes all in on the Wildcats first trip to the national semifinals in 25 years

ST. LOUIS, April 3, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Friskies, the #1 cat food brand, is pouncing on the University of Arizona Wildcats run through this year's basketball tournament and turning every single point scored into meals for shelter cats in Tucson. Because what's a Wildcat run without actual cats winning, too?

Here's how it works: For every point the Wildcats score through the rest of their historic run, Friskies is donating 1,000 meals to the Hermitage No-Kill Cat Shelter & Sanctuary, Arizona's oldest no-kill, cage-free cat shelter, plus making a cash donation. The Hermitage is home to more than 200 cats at any given time and rescues over 700 cats a year in its 9,000-square-foot facility.

This weekend, Friskies is making sure Tucson's shelter cats have front-row seats to the Arizona Wildcat's drama filled run. Win or lose, it's shaping up to be a paws-down great week for local felines in need.

"Nothing embodies the spirit of Friskies like showing up in unexpected ways for cat people," said Jason Dolan, Brand Director, Friskies. "We've been cheering on Wilbur, Wilma and the Wildcats since day one, and we loved how fans are sharing in that big cat energy. We are excited to see what the Wildcats can do this weekend and just how many meals we can deliver to the cats of Tucson."

The Hermitage No-Kill Cat Shelter & Sanctuary has been keeping Tucson's at-risk cats and kittens safe, fed, and loved since 1965. As Arizona's only accredited cat sanctuary, Hermitage provides round-the-clock care for cats awaiting their forever homes. The Friskies donation will go directly toward the shelter's care and feeding programs – because every cat deserves a full belly and a shot at the good life.

"Every meal and every dollar makes a huge difference for the cats in our care," said Natalie Meier, Board President at Hermitage "We're grateful for Friskies' support – for our shelter cats... and our college cats."

The partnership is rooted in genuine fandom. Friskies has been cheering for the Wildcats on social media from the start – rooting for Wilbur and celebrating along with fans. Cat lovers and college basketball fans alike noticed and took to social media calling for Friskies to make it official, and the University of Arizona answered.

"The energy around this Wildcats team has been incredible, but knowing that every point we score is feeding shelter cats right here in Tucson makes it even more special," said Brian Rooney, General Manager at Arizona Sports Enterprises. "Friskies has been hyping us up since the beginning, and this partnership gives our fans and our community one more reason to cheer – and our team one more reason to win."
